Anyone who walks into The Design Studio of Somerville will have a serious case of style envy. This 3000 square foot interior design studio and retail boutique is filled with a well curated, eclectic mix of gorgeous home décor and furniture bringing a jolt of high energy style to the center of Somerville.

Founded by interior designer, Tom Sfisco, The Design Studio of Somerville's team of tastemakers and décor mavens are always available to help clients find their sense of personal style and bring that vision to life. "We strive to create spaces that radiate a sense of elegant livability," says Sfisco. With no limit to their style sensibility, the interior designers at The Design Studio guide clients in the creative process until the absolute perfect mix of furniture, accents, color, pattern and textile are revealed to create a singular visual tapestry."

If you are interested in a remarkable shopping trip filled with gorgeous unexpected finds for house and home, The Design Studio of Somerville should be your next stop. For those looking to revamp or reinvent whether transforming a family room, finding the perfect window treatments or turning a home office into a charmingly functional setting, The Design Studio can help craft the overall vision and flawlessly manage each step right up to the finishing details.
